WELCOME

Australia has begun well its quest to represent Asia and Oceania in the World Cup finals to be played in the Argentine in 1978.

With wins over Taiwan and New Zealand behind them, our World Cup Squad, ably led by Peter Wilson and coached by Jim Shoulder, now eagerly seek competition against strong teams as a prelude to further World Cup contests.

And so it is with real pleasure that we welcome to Australia Middlesbrough of England, who will no doubt provide N.S.W. soccer supporters with a feast of fine football — at the same time providing valuable experience for our Squad.

We welcome Middlesbrough and wish them a very enjoyable tour.

Karl Rodney
Senior Vice President
N.S.W. Federation of Soccer Clubs

Note ; Karl Rodney is "holding the reins" while Federation President, Peter McCann, is overseas. Karl this month celebrates 28 years of soccer administration. He was a foundation member of the N.S.W. Federation of Soccer Clubs having joined in 1957. He was President of Hakoah in the years 1967-69, when Hakoah won EVERYTHING going.

MIDDLESBROUGH

By DAVID JACK of the Sydney SUN.

English first division club, Middlesbrough, is one of the oldest, and most respected in the Football League.

It is exactly 101 years since The Boro was formed.

In 1889, Middlesbrough became a professional team, but three years later, apparently thinking better of it, reverted to amateur status! After seven years in amateur Soccer, The Boro once again adopted professionalism.....and that's the way they've remained ever since.

Surprisingly, although Middlesbrough have been one of England's most distinguished clubs for 101 years, they have never won the first division championship. Or even finished runners-up.

Indeed, according to the excellent Rothmans Football Year Book, Middlesbrough's highest position in the championship was third. That was as long ago as 1913-14 season.....after which the world decided to go to war!

Old time Boro followers argue long and vociferously about the greatest player to have worn the famous red jersey. Was it

George Camsell, who scored 326 goals in the League between 1925 and 1939? Was it the mercurial Wilf Mannion who played 26 times for England in a year when the game abounded with brilliant performers? Perhaps it might have been even Alf Common, whose name will forever be in the record books as the first footballer ever transferred for a four-figure fee. Common cost the uncommon figure of £1,000 in 1905 when The Boro paid that outrageous sum to Sunderland for his services.

Middlesbrough, today, are still among the most attractive and enterprising teams in England.

On this Australian tour, they bring with them outstanding individuals like skipper and centre-half Stuart Boam, long-serving striker John Hickton, attacking full-back John Craggs and the gifted David Mills, David Armstrong and Graeme Souness.

They also have Phil Boersma, the forward who caused something of a sensation when he was left out of Liverpool's successful F. A. Cup Final team against Newcastle United in 1974.

Boersma was so upset about missing the match of a lifetime, he said he would never kick another ball for Liverpool. He was transferred to Middlesbrough and now hopes to fulfil his Wembley ambitions with The Boro.

Probably the most distinguished personality in the Middlesbrough touring party is not a player at all. I refer to my good friend Harold Shepherdson, who has taken over the managerial reins from Jackie Charlton.

Harold Shepherdson was England's international trainer and assistant manager for 17 years — from 1957 to 1974. Nobody has had such a long association with the England side.

"Shep" was England's trainer at four successive World Cup tournaments — Sweden (1958), Chile (1962), England (1966) and, finally, Mexico (1970).

It is a privilege to welcome Middlesbrough football team to Sydney Sports Ground today. I am sure they will give local fans something to talk about..... and will certainly give the Australian World Cup squad a most valuable work-out.

"The Boro" PEN PORTRAITS

STUART BOAM — Fits the bill of a powerful, commanding centre half. Middlesbrough signed him for £50,000 from Mansfield in 1971 when many other clubs hesitated. Enterprise rewarded time and time again with Boam now a respected First Division defender and club captain.

DAVID MILLS — A local discovery, with England Under-23 honours to his credit. Amazes everyone with his fantastic stamina and running power. A professional's professional, who creates chances for others with his unselfish work.

JIM PLATT — A former Northern Ireland amateur and youth international, he finally emerged as No.2 to goalkeeper Pat Jennings on the full international scene last season. Joined the Boro' in 1970 after playing for Ballymena United in the Irish Cup Final. Has paid his £7,000 transfer fee — and a £3,000 bonus after 12 League games — over and over again.

GRAEME SOUNESS — A Scottish international, he has hit the headlines with Middlesbrough after struggling to get into the first team swim at Spurs. A destroyer-creator who commands the middle of the field. A bargain £30,000 buy in 1972.

JOHN HICKTON — Arguably one of the best club men in Middlesbrough's 100 year history. His loyalty has been rewarded with a testimonial this year. Merits a special place in the hearts of the fans for helping the Boro' since the "dark days" of the Third Division.

BOBBY MURDOCH — One of the greatest players in post-war history. Won everything over the border with Celtic before helping the Boro' back into the First Division. Available for playing duty again, but will also help out by passing on his invaluable experience and knowledge as coach to Boro's babes.

DAVID ARMSTRONG — A Durham-born discovery, who emerged through the ranks. An England Under-23 forward rated by Jack Charlton as "one of the best left-sided players in the game." With a little more luck, could challenge for big-time honours this season.

MALCOL SMITH — Made a scoring impact with Blackpool when on loan last season. Could challenge again for a first-team place at Ayresome Park. A Ferryhill lad, who burst on the League scene with two goals in a Sunderland derby when 18.

PHILIP BOERSMA — Signed from Liverpool in December, 1975 for a Club record fee of £75,000. Played 20 games in the First Team, now settled down and great things are expected from him this Term.

TERRY COOPER — Another player who shines in an attacking role. Shared in the many triumphs of Leeds United, including a Wembley-winning goal in the Foot-

TONY McANDREW — A former Scottish youth international, who rounded off last season in style with a hat-trick — and the match ball — in the final home game against Sheffield United. A powerful-striding player, with a tremendous appetite for the game, and outstanding potential.

PAT CUFF — A local product who has waited patiently in the shadows for his big chance. Joined the club as an apprentice professional in 1968. Made first team debut against Bolton in April, 1974, after the club had clinched their 1st Division return. Appearances restricted through consistency of Platt.

IAN BAILEY — A local discovery, with a style similar to the vastly experienced Cooper. Cool and confident for a youngster. Gained his first team spurs last season and promises to develop into an outstanding full-back.

WILLIE MADDREN — A local discovery, who has a telepathic understanding with Boam. A mystery why this England Under-23 player has not reached senior status as an international. Jack Charlton rates him a better defensive player than Colin Todd - "He makes fewer mistakes than any player in Britain."

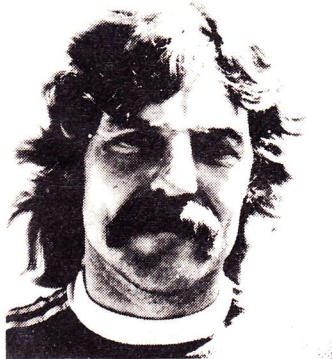

JOHN CRAGGS — Jack Charlton rates an on-form Craggs as "the best attacking right back in the business." A stylish player with exceptional ball skill for a full back. Loves to prompt attacks by moving forward. Cost the Boro' £60,000 when signed from Newcastle United, his first professional club, in 1971.
